PRACTICE

Practice can begin Feb 19.

No practice prior to official team formation.

Practices can be any day other than same day as a game. Each team is different.

A game or a practice counts as a meeting.

T-Ball practices are usually about an hour. Older players can practice up to 2 hours.

T-Ball teams can meet 3 times/week (most practice twice per week until games begin, then once)

Ages 7 and up can meet 4 times/week (most practice twice per week all season)

TEAM ASSIGNMENT

No team formation until there is a team manager.

Team manager does not have to be the head coach.

Team assignments and game schedules will be announced between Feb 7 and Feb 11.

Those who played in BATB last spring will return to their spring team unless they choose not to.

Other players are placed by best geographic fit or by specific request (where practical).

GAME SCHEDULES

Games will be played Saturdays and some weekdays from March 26 through June 4 (if needed).

T-Ball 1 plays only on Saturdays

T-Ball 2 plays Saturdays plus a weekday game now and then (usually a Mon or Tue)

Others usually play Saturdays plus a weekday game every other week (usually Mon or Tue)

STANDINGS & AWARDS

Standings are maintained and placement trophies awarded for MP2 through 18U.

Participation trophies are provided by the league for TB1 through MP1 in the spring.

PLAYER PARTICIPATION

Everyone bats the whole game. No one sits the bench 2 innings in a row.

PICTURES

Picture Day is Sunday, April 3.

All participants receive an individual and a team picture.

UNIFORMS

Your fee includes a full 5-piece uniform.

They will be made available to the team manager about a week before the first games.
